

Meet Fraternity Edna!

RECAP

What is Fraternity Education?

A portion of each meeting set aside for the purpose of learning more about our organization and each other.

How do I learn about it?

It's on the International Website:

1. Go to Members Only - then Resource library.
2. Find the All Members tab.
3. Go to the right column- Membership.
4. Find Fraternity Ed Resources.

*Also found on the CA website

It comes in all sizes....

Bite sized minutes .....to supersized activities.

Need some examples?

How about a “Getting to know you” activity - it builds community and belonging....

Find someone who.....

Find Someone Who Fraternity Education

Directions: While walking around the room, Find Someone Who can answer the questions and fill in her name on the space provided. Once you approach one person for a question, you may not approach her again. (Meet as many people in the room as possible!)

Here's another idea.... How about learning more about ADK ?

- How we are organized.
- What is the thing with violets????
- What is a S/P/N?
- And lots more.....

You could focus on small things like....

How to correctly wear your badge????

Or BIGGER topics like....

Becoming familiar
the Website.

Or perhaps you could share info
about.....

Conventions & conferences,
Altruism,
Grants and Scholarships.

In summary, Fraternity Ed can be:

- Found on the International Website.
- Helps us to learn about our organization.
- Can be short and concise.
- Should be fun and educational!
