

sisterhood

[sis·ter·hood] noun -English

They are the ones who are here for YOU.

To applaud your success and be there with a helping hand to catch you when you fall. They are here to raise you up with love and support.

“In the tapestry of life, sisterhood is the golden thread that weaves us into a masterpiece.”

“Sisterhood is not just a word, it’s a lifelong commitment to love, protect, and inspire.”

“Sisters inspire, uplift, and bring out the best in each other. Together, we thrive.”

“Sisters are like branches of the same tree, rooted in love, and forever connected.”

Sisterhood

"she is your mirror, shining back at you with a world of possibilities. she is your witness, who sees you at your worst and best, and loves you anyway. she is your partner in crime, your midnight companion, someone who knows when you are smiling, even in the dark. she is your teacher, your defense attorney, even your shrink. she is your sister."

-barbara alpert

blessingmanifesting.com